

Overview

Wisdom Counseling offers psychotherapy services for people dealing with depression, anxiety and relationship issues.

Patrick Maloney has specialized training in working with chemical or behavioral addiction issues, trauma or abuse issues, relationship issues and providing spiritually integrated counseling for people of faith.

Coaching, training and consultation services are also available in person or via distance by electronic communication.

I work with many insurance companies, as a contracted provider (Cigna, Aetna, United, Cofinity, Mines & Associates, Magellan, etc) and patients can often utilize this coverage for their care.

My hours are generally Monday through Friday, scheduling appts from as early as 9am to as late as 6pm M-Th, 4pm on Fridays.
